

Indiana American Fisheries Society

IAFS Student Travel Award

Purpose:

To provide financial assistance to a student attending an Indiana school to present his/her fisheries research at the Midwest Fish and Wildlife Conference.

Description:

A grant of $100 from the Indiana Chapter.

Eligibility criteria:

This award is offered to the Best Student Paper recipient from the IAFS spring meeting to present at the Midwest Fish and Wildlife Conference. If he/she declines, the award is secondarily offered to the Best Student Poster recipient. If both decline the award, the Awards Committee, with the approval of IAFS EXCOM, may consider applications from other students. Notification the award is open to IAFS student applicants will be e-mailed to members and posted on the IAFS web site. Applicants should submit a short (one page) justification and a copy of their abstract to the Awards Chair for committee review.

Deadline:

The deadline for accepting the award is July 1st of the year offered.

Presentation:

The award will be presented at the fall IAFS meeting or mailed to the recipient prior to the Midwest Fish and Wildlife Conference.

Notifications:

Upon acceptance, the IAFS President will notify North Central Division (prior to the Midwest Fish and Wildlife Conference) of the IAFS Student Travel Award recipient in order to be eligible for the Joan Duffy Student Travel Award - which matches Chapter student travel awards up to $100. Students will be honored and checks presented during the NCD Business Meeting at the Midwest Fish and Wildlife Conference.
